

I request that the FCC not implement any proposal that lessens Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act protections.

I now receive hardly any solicitating calls, when previously I received about 4 each evening. I believe the Indiana Privacy Act is protecting my rights and I strongly endorse its provisions.